Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to comply production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

- (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,
- (ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in who behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

ATTACHMENT A

DEFINITIONS

1. As used herein, the term "document" shall refer to, without limitation, printed, typed, recorded, photocopied, photographed, graphically or electronically generated, or stored matter, however produced or reproduced, including originals, copies, and drafts thereof, which may be considered a "document" or "tangible thing" within the meaning of Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including but not limited to all patents and all applications, foreign or domestic, as well as correspondence and filings in connection therewith, contracts, agreements, guarantees, amendments, assignments, offers, prospectuses, proxy statements, invoices, purchase orders, research and development records, production records, quality control records, management reports, audit reports, accounting reports, work papers, ledgers, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, financial statements, memoranda, correspondence, communications, computer printouts, computer tapes or disks, envelopes, summaries, analyses, opinions, projections, forecasts, budgets, estimates, transcripts, tape recordings, business cards, notes, calendar or diary entries, newspaper articles, advertisements, pamphlets, periodicals, pleadings, indexes, file folders and press releases.
2. As used herein, the term "Honeywell" shall refer to Honeywell International, Inc. and Honeywell Intellectual Properties Inc., and all divisions, departments, subsidiaries (whether direct or indirect), parents, affiliates, acquisitions, predecessors and entities controlled by any of them, whether domestic or foreign, including but not limited to, Allied Corporation, Bendix Corp., Honeywell Inc., Allied-Signal, and/or AlliedSignal and their respective present or former officers, directors, employees, owners, attorneys and agents, as well as consultants and any other persons acting or purporting to act on behalf of each such entity or person.
3. As used herein, the term "3M," "you," or "your" shall refer to 3M Corporation and include, without limitation, your divisions, subsidiaries, directors, agents, representatives, employees, and any predecessor in interest.
4. As used herein, the term "communication" shall refer to any and all exchanges of information between two or more persons by any medium, including, but not limited to, meetings, telephone conversations, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, e-mails, computer, radio, telegraph, or verbal actions intended to convey or actually conveying information or data.
5. As used herein, the term "relate" or "relating" shall mean embodying, concerning, containing, comprising, constituting, indicating, referring to, identifying, describing, discussing, involving, supporting, reflecting, evidencing, or otherwise in any way pertaining directly or indirectly to.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. As used herein, the use of the singular form of any word shall include the plural and vice versa.
2. As used herein, the connectives "and" and "or" shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively so as to acquire the broadest possible meaning.
3. As used herein, the terms "any," "all" or "each" shall be construed as "any, all and each" inclusively.
4. These requests shall apply to all documents in your possession, custody, or control at the present time or coming into your possession, custody, or control prior to the date of the production. If you know of the existence, past or present, of any documents or things requested below, but are unable to produce such documents or things because they are not presently in your possession, custody, or control, you shall so state and shall identify such documents or things, and the person who has possession, custody, or control of the documents or things.
5. For each and every document for which you assert either attorney-client privilege, work product protection, or some other allegedly applicable privilege, (1) identify the document by date, title, nature, author, sender, recipients, and/or participants; (2) provide a summary statement of the subject matter of the document sufficient in detail to permit a determination of the propriety of your assertion of such privilege or protection; and (3) identify the allegedly applicable privilege or protection.
6. These document requests seek answers current to the date of response, and further shall be deemed to be continuing under Rule 26 (e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, so that any additional documents referring or relating in any way to these document requests which you acquire or which becomes known to you up to and including the time of trial shall be produced promptly after being so acquired or known by you.
